LOUISE COOK A DAMSEL IN DISTRESS

British Female Rally Driver Louise Cook, 22, from Kent will be at the nation's largest motorsport show this week the Autosport International, 14th-17th of January. Louise needs your support to achieve a lifelong ambition and become the first female World Rally Champion. Louise is trying her hardest to overcome the budget obstacle for 2010 in what are tough times in every industry. Louise has come up with a plan that will give back a 500:1 investment return for 6 lucky supporters and give every supporter a 1 in 5 chance of receiving substantial on car promotion throughout the season. In addition every single supporter will receive a sticker of their logo on the car to show their support and a website link on the hotly visited www.cutecookie.co.uk. All this relies on mass support which is pretty scary for a young female and her friends. They are asking for a nominal amount of just £50 sponsorship support, which is probably less than most people spend on fuel getting to the show. If everyone helps then this can really happen and you can all be part of something truly special.

Louise will contest in the British Rally Championship Challenge in 2010 and plans to take no prisoners. Louise has done things the right way with substantial coaching and testing, she plans to hit the ground running in 2010, and sorry boys she is coming through!
